PRESERVING AND PROTECTING

Virginia's Beauty

IS A JOB FOR ALL OF US

While you let Amtrak whisk you through a delightful kaleidoscope of urban and rural Virginia landscapes, pause to consider how you're doing your part to minimize the impact on these environments. On average, an Amtrak train carries twice as many passengers as a domestic airline flight – and that train uses 20 percent less energy per passenger mile than that flight

AMTRAK® DELIVERS:
FROM BOSTON'S BEACON HILL
TO LYNCHBURG, CITY OF SEVEN HILLS

Whether you're traveling to New England, the Mid-Atlantic or central Virginia, Amtrak® lets you sit back, relax, and enjoy the ride. And this fall, we're giving you two more reasons to let Amtrak do the driving.

For the first time, new Amtrak Virginia service originating from Lynchburg will begin October 1. Take in Lynchburg's art scene at the Riverviews Artspace, explore the seven hills that gave the city its nickname, or visit the 3rd oldest farmers market in the US—the Lynchburg Community Market. And on December 15, Amtrak Virginia will start a new hourly morning service from Richmond. Discover the rich history of Virginia's capital, take a cruise on the James River canals, or snap a photo of General Robert E. Lee's monument. The two new Northeast RegionalSM trains will give you a one-seat ride throughout the world-famous Amtrak Northeast Corridor—the "front door" of America's Eastern Seaboard. Cities you'll see up close include Washington, D.C., Baltimore, Philadelphia, Trenton, New York, Stamford, New Haven, Providence, and more continuing north to Boston.

But those aren't the only reasons to take Amtrak. The Crescent[®] offers daily roundtrip departures between New York and New Orleans with stops in major cities like Philadelphia, Washington, D.C., and Atlanta. The Cardinal[®] takes you from Chicago to New York three days a week with stops in major cities like Indianapolis, Cincinnati, and Washington, D.C. Both trains allow you to take in the vibrancy of big cityscapes and watch them fade into natural beauties, like the rolling valleys of Virginia's Shenandoah region, the ebb and flow of the Potomac (a.k.a. "The Nation's River"), and the peaks and foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains.

So whether you're taking a long weekend, catching up with friends and family or mixing business with pleasure, pack your bags and book your trip today!

THE STATE FOR LOVERS JUST GOT A NEW COUPLE

You'll fall for two new Amtrak Northeast RegionalSM trains that provide direct service between central Virginia and the Northeast Corridor. Amtrak[®] Virginia offers a one-seat ride to nearly 30 stations as far north as Boston and as far south as Lynchburg and Richmond with stops in Washington, D.C., Philadelphia, New York and more.

New daily roundtrip service starts from Lynchburg for the first time on October 1st, and on December 15th, hourly morning service will be available between Richmond and the Northeast Corridor. From the Blue Ridge Mountains in Lynchburg to historic Richmond – and the two new Northeast Corridor trains to take you there – Amtrak offers many more reasons to love Virginia.
